

2012 Mid-Atlantic Bio

September 27-28, 2012
Bethesda, MD

The Epicenter of Bioscience, Capital, and Policy

Mid-Atlantic Bio is the only globally-focused, yet regionally-based, event to combine components of a bioscience industry convention with an investor conference under one roof. More than 800 national and international industry leaders, investors, executives, government representatives, researchers, entrepreneurs, and professional services firms gather to promote networking, business expansion, and technical-knowledge sharing.
